“Entering college is intimidating, but LEAPS helped me realize that everyone is going through the same transition. LEAPS was a huge help my freshman year, and I will continue the skills throughout my college experience.” – EMILY

“I was very excited for my first semester of college and really underestimated the workload. LEAPS helped me deal with the amount of work while balancing my job and other responsibilities.” – CECELIA

“My first semester at college was really difficult and frightening to me. I was struggling, but LEAPS helped get me back on track and moved me to get better grades.” – ALEJANDRO

“Moving to Washington from Texas really took me out of my comfort zone. Joining LEAPS helped me make friends and get good study habits. LEAPS really helped me be successful my first semester at WSU Vancouver.” – ALLI

“As a first-generation college student, I have felt a ton of stress and anticipation. Because of LEAPS and other resources I have been able to overcome so much and do better than I ever thought. I have many goals planned for my future, and thanks to LEAPS I am at a great beginning point for the rest of my college life and my life to come.” – COURTNEY

“College is probably the hardest thing I’ve ever had to do in my life. LEAPS helped with getting to know other students so that I would feel more comfortable.” – XHAYNE

“Becoming part of WSU Vancouver made me into a different person. I became more responsible in life. LEAPS was a great push in the beginning of the year. My motto: ‘Never give up, never back down.’” – DAN
